

I know as a small business owner that if BellSouth's request goes through it will negatively affect our business as well as thousands of other small businesses.